

Chanticleer Photography Guidelines and Permission Form

Thank you for your interest in photographing Chanticleer. We welcome personal photography and encourage guests to capture their visit for their own enjoyment.

This form is required for photographers using tripods or professional equipment. Casual photographers do not need to complete this form.

Personal vs. Commercial Use

Personal photography (photos, images, video and film footage) taken at Chanticleer may not be used for commercial products or services without express written permission.

Commercial photography and filming require advance written approval from the Executive Director. Please contact us well in advance of your planned visit.

Photography Guidelines

All photographers using tripods or professional equipment must follow these guidelines:

Equipment and Setup:

- Set up tripods on lawns or terraces only, never in garden beds
- Leave adequate space for visitors to move around you
- Professional equipment (booms, lights, reflectors) is not permitted

What's Not Permitted:

- Portrait, family, engagement, wedding, lifestyle, or graduation photography sessions
- Drones
- Any activity that disrupts other guests' experience

General Courtesy:

- Follow all requests from Chanticleer staff
- Respect the wishes of other guests
- Leave the garden exactly as you found it

Please note: All photography is at Chanticleer's discretion. Staff may ask you to relocate or cease photography at any time.

Image Usage and Credit

For Editorial Use:

We encourage the use of identifiable Chanticleer images for editorial purposes. Please credit Chanticleer as the location.

Stock Photography:

Chanticleer will not sign general releases giving blanket permission for stock agencies to use photos taken at Chanticleer. However, extreme close-ups that are not location-specific and could be from any garden may be used without restriction.

Commercial Use:

Any commercial use, reuse or reproduction of images requires express written permission from Chanticleer.
